Description:

In order to support the welfare of the academic community, as well as assist them in developing alternative solutions to everyday problems, Fasilkom UI now provides counseling services for students, lecturers and staff. This service aims to assist the adaptation process, prevent more serious impacts from adjustment problems, and provide social support and educational information regarding various problems that may be faced. Based on the Dean's Decree, a Counseling Body has been formed within Fasilkom UI consisting of a number of counselors, who are Fasilkom UI lecturers. These counselors will be ready to provide guidance and assistance on various academic, personal and social issues, with the hope of helping the academic community to face challenges and find the right solutions. Through this counseling service, Fasilkom UI is committed to creating an environment that supports mental and emotional health, while encouraging academic and social success for the entire academic community.
